Celtic Music from here to there and then to now

Ga Greíne means "Sunbeam" in Gaelic and was chosen by the band to represent the reawakening of the Celtic traditions in a band consisting of multiple generations from Baby Boomer to Generation X, and on to Generation Z.

Charles Stacey plays guitar and is our lead vocalist. His musical experience goes back to the 1950s/1960s and brings flavors of folk and storytelling within Ga Greíne's original songs and those of the new folk revival.

Deb Yost plays all types of wind instruments including penny whistle, Irish flute, French flute, and Galician/gaita (Spanish bagpipes) and has performed starting in the 1990s with an emphasis of jazz/rock and Latin inspirations. She also Sings and does traditional Cape Briton dance

Our youngest band mate, Abigail Baker, started playing fiddle at age three and now at 16 she brings a fresh perspective to traditional Celtic tunes. She also sings

Ga Greíne is available to play for you. Call Charles at (832) 630-3022 or email: gypsyfire@gypsyfire.com
